

All the Earth Is Alive

Refrain:

All the earth is alive
with the rising of a new day.
Let the bells ring full with joy:
Alleluia, Alleluia.

1. In the forest can we hear the ringing of the bells, inviting us to live from our heart? Refrain
2. With their mellow sound they ring through the quiet rooms of our life.
Once again new hope is born with the dawn. Refrain
3. From beyond the wooded hills their echo lingers and flows to the pastures waiting for the day. Refrain
4. In the early morning mist the soft earth glistens with light as the birds now greet the rising sun. Refrain
5. As we listen deeply creation's wisdom will sing;
new horizons of freedom shall appear. Refrain
