

Bread on Every Table

Refrain:

When bread is on every table,
all will know that Jesus is risen.
Then the poor of the world will feast, and their children will sing “Alleluia!”

1. At this table laden with gifting, with love and peace and grace, we share the bread we break
that the poor of the world may feast,
All: that the poor of the world may feast. Refrain

2. Streams of freedom are now flowing, unlocking every door,
the dawn of lasting peace,
that the poor of the world may feast,
All: that the poor of the world may feast. Refrain

3. Let bread no longer in greed be hoarded, borders no longer closed,
compassion’s victory,
that the poor of the world may feast,
All: that the poor of the world may feast. Refrain

4. May the hungry be filled with plenty, with bread and work and land,
our resurrection hope,
that the poor of the world may feast,
All: that the poor of the world may feast. Refrain

5. We sing to you, O Jesus risen, God’s wisdom feeding all,
O broken, living Bread,
that the poor of the world may feast,
All: that the poor of the world may feast. Refrain
