

Long Before I Know

Introduction:

what I really feel
a sudden song is born,
reflecting hidden dreams,
often well into the night.

Pebbles in my shoes
sure to keep alive
a certain sense of beauty, colors to be woven
into the garment of life.

1. Wander where you will,
you might even linger
beside the mirror
inviting you further.
2. Journeys through our minds
take us into gardens,
carefully tended,
awakening wonder.
