

Sabbath's End

All:

We are grateful for the stillness of this day,
a time in which creation finds rest in God.
Holy, holy is this day.
We are saddened to see Sabbath's end.

Choir:

You who know the depth of our heart,
all of our needs are kept in your sight.
You give us the blessing of your love.
You understand all of our pain.

All:

The stillness of your Sabbath is healing for our soul,
a time in which th'eternal touches our heart.
Holy, holy is this day.
We are saddened to see Sabbath's end.

Choir:

Heaven and earth are fulfilled by this day;
dewdrop and star, mountain and stone,
plants and animals, the peoples of the earth,
all delight in the blessing of this day.

All:

We are grateful for the stillness of this day,
a time in which creation finds rest in God.
Holy, holy is this day.
We are saddened to see Sabbath's end.
We are saddened to see Sabbath's end.
