

So Strong Your Love (Psalm 103)

Refrain:

As vast as heaven,
deep as the ocean,
so strong your love for all who follow on your way.

1. We tell your goodness, we sing your mercy, all that we are blessed by your holy name.
Tender in loving, rich in forgiving, heal and renew your people searching for your face. Refrain 2. It would be plenty that you forgive us, enough to give us hope for future days.
Yet you are ever seeking the broken to be your daughters and your sons, restored to life. Refrain 3. Your word inviting, your patience tender, your touch embraces those lost on their way.
As vast as heaven, deep as the ocean, so strong your love for those who come to you with trust. Refrain 4. In fire you whispered your name to Moses; through Miriam you sang your song on freedom's way.
Friend of the outcast, hope for the humble, to all the voiceless you announced your saving day. Refrain 5. Most gracious Mother, prodigal Father, you are a stream of mercy for our wayward hearts.
For you remember, Love ever faithful, that we are fragile, like flowers of the field. Refrain 6. It would be plenty that you restore us, yet you have written our names in your heart.
With all creation, with ev'ry people, we lift our voices in a song of endless praise. Refrain
