

The Prophet's Cry

1. A cry came from the wilderness:
clear a way for the Lord;
cut his pathways straight,
cut his pathways straight.
Every valley must be filled in,
every mountain and hill be brought low, winding ways must be straightened,
and rough roads made smooth,
that all mankind may see the salvation of God,
that all mankind may see the salvation of God.