

When with a Friend

1. When, with a friend, you walk the sands of time,
wet waves your path will cross;
but with the vision of your hand in mine,
no fear can stand between.
2. No one can ever tell just what it is to be known for who you really are;
but if you can be understood,
your love will grow like the vine.
3. A friend so gentle, always where you are,
with whom you blow your mind;
and, if you can, stay with it long
and find a reason for the wind.
4. The wind, the wind,
Oh, how I love the wind,
so free to be just where it is;
I'll follow you, my friend and I,
to the meadow where you dance and sing.
5. When, with a friend,
you walk the sands of time,
wet waves your path will cross;
but with the vision of your hand in mine.
no fear can stand between.
