

Your Eyes

1. Your eyes:
look to them deeply
and you will see how deep is the love you are.
2. If you can know ev'ry moment the truth of your person so noble and free, your fears will fade and be transformed into dance and song and love you can't withhold from sharing.
3. Go on straight to your meadow.
Wait for the moon and wild geese who call to you.
If you but hear an echo within you know you are meant to be just where and who you really are.
